2. Selection Process for Participation:

The Surprise Squad is a team of our Cast Members whose duty is to distribute surprises during the "Year of Magical Surprises" ("Surprise Squad"). According to a pre-determined time schedule on any given day during this Unit period, six groups of Surprise Squad teams are dispatched out to select guests at the same time at six different locations randomly selected within Shanghai Disneyland. There may be three (3) to four (4) rounds of selections in a day, based on the frequency of the Surprise Show for that day. The Organizer anticipates that potential participants may be selected at Shanghai Disneyland between 09:00 and 15:00 local time and the Organizer reserves the right in its sole discretion to select potential participants at Shanghai Disneyland at any time during the hours of operation.

Each Surprise Squad team engages five (5) groups of guests they encounter at the respective location, and subject to a preliminary eligibility check, one representative from each of these five groups may gather together and participate in the Surprise Reveal Card drawing. The guest representative cannot be changed, inside or outside of his or her group once the specific guest is determined and his/her ticket or Annual Pass is verified. If the eligible guest representatives in total is short of five, the Surprise Squad team may engage the next available guest(s) they encounter until five eligible guest candidates are identified. The Surprise Squad's decisions as to the selection of candidates for the Surprise Reveal Card drawing will be final and binding.

Before drawing Surprise Reveal Cards, guests are required to show their respective park admission ticket or Annual Pass for the Surprise Squad Cast Member to scan and verify the eligibility preliminarily. After ticket validation, a sealed envelope which contains five (5) Surprise Reveal Cards will be unsealed in front of the five guest candidates, and each of these five (5) guest candidates can pick one Surprise Reveal card from the pack of five together at the same time.

Scratch coins are provided to the guests to scratch off the silver line covering the result information on the Surprise Reveal Cards.

The whole process will be recorded by the body camera the Surprise Squad is carrying. You may choose to give up the opportunity to draw a Surprise Reveal Card by letting the Surprise Squad team know your intent clearly. Such refusal will not impact your eligibility for future Surprise Shows.

These guests are eligible for any future Surprise Shows.
- Guests whose Surprise Reveal Cards show “在明日世界！ At Tomorrowland!” have won the opportunity to participate in the Surprise Show at the E-stage to win specific prize(s). Guests who participate in the Surprise Reveal Card drawing process should be the ones who participate in the Surprise Show, and such individuals cannot be changed, inside or outside of his or her group. You may choose to give up the opportunity to participate in the Surprise Show even if you have the winning card, and please do so by letting the Surprise Squad team know your intent clearly. You may ask the Surprise Squad Cast Member accompanying you to elaborate on any questions you may have regarding this written consent, and/or the show process and/or other terms and conditions regarding the Event. Failure to complete, sign and deliver such written consent or to otherwise comply with these Terms and Conditions will result in disqualification and forfeiture of any prize. You may choose to refuse to sign such written consent or otherwise give up the opportunity to participate in the Surprise Show before signing such written consent, by letting the Surprise Squad team know your intent clearly. Such refusal will not impact your eligibility for future Surprise Shows.

Each eligible guest who is sixteen (16) years old or above but under eighteen (18) years old should sign such written consent by himself or herself and he or she must have obtained consent from his or her parent/legal guardian for his or her participation in the Surprise Show in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. When receiving such request of deletion, we reserve the right to: (i) require the return of all prizes awarded to the minor in the Surprise Show or an amount of their equivalent value; and (ii) require reasonable proof of the caller's identity and his or her relationship with the minor.

The whole process will be recorded by the body camera the Surprise Squad is carrying.

4.2 Show Frequency

Depending on the attendance level and operation of the day, the Organizer will hold three (3) to four (4) Surprise Shows each day during the Unit period. There will be two (2) to seven (7) participants in each Surprise Show. If for some reason there are fewer than two participants available for a particular Surprise Show, such Surprise Show will be cancelled and the only participant will be accompanied to the Surprise Welcome Center to proceed pursuant to Section 4.5 Show Cancellation.

4.3 Show Process

Each Surprise Show contains a minimum of one round of prize winning. The Organizer may randomly pick up to one Surprise Show among all the Surprise Shows scheduled for the day to hold the second round where one and only one guest among the participants of the first round can win the Magical Star of the Day on top of the prize he or she won in the first round.

During the first round, each participant will be offered an opportunity to spin the Disney Surprise Wheel to win one prize on the E-stage. The sequence of spinning the Disney Surprise Wheel is based on the alphabetical order of the participants' last names. If two participants have the same last name, the first name will be used to arrange the sequence alphabetically. Failing the aforementioned methodology, the sequence will be arranged based on the participants' dates of birth. The Organizer reserves the right to change the sequence at any time as the circumstances require.

Each participant can only spin once. The character that the Disney Surprise Wheel is pointing to after it stops its spinning cycle represents the specific prize the participant has won. There are eight characters on the Disney Surprise Wheel: Woody, Chip 'n' Dale, Duffy, Snow White, Judy Hopps, Spider-Man, Donald Duck and Pluto. Each character is associated with a specific prize that are randomized among the prizes listed in Appendix II (except for "Magical Star of the Day"). The specific prize description is contained in the Disney Surprise Capsule with the corresponding character presented on the Disney Surprise Wheel. Specific prizes will be announced by the host of the Surprise Show as well as on the E-Stage projection screen (prize photos are for reference only). If there is any inconsistency between the prize description contained in the Disney Surprise Capsule and the prize image projected on screen, the prize described inside the Disney Surprise Capsule with the corresponding character shall prevail. After the first round, only up to seven prizes out of eight prepared will be randomly awarded to participants, and the remaining prizes will be forfeited by the Organizer at the end of the day.

The entire process will be recorded by CCTV on the E-stage and the Surprise Squad team's body cameras.

4.4 Magical Star of the Day

Should there be a second round scheduled for a particular Surprise Show, all participants of the first round will have the chance to win the Magical Star of the Day (the details of which are listed in Appendix II) but there will be one and only one winner. The second round is designed to give away the largest surprise of the day, namely the Magical Star of the Day experience.

All the characters representing the prizes won in the first round will be presented on the E-Stage projection screen. The host will spin the Disney Surprise Wheel to trigger the randomization system in order to select the winner. The Disney Surprise Wheel will only stop at one specific character, indicating the winner of the Magical Star of the Day. Such winner chosen by the system will be shown on the screen and announced by the host. The entire process will be recorded by CCTV on the E-stage and the Surprise Squad team's body cameras.

4.5 Show Cancellation

Due to weather, system error or as the circumstances require, the Surprise Show on the E-stage may be cancelled partly or entirely. In case of show cancellation, the entire lucky draw process or the remaining part of the lucky draw process, as the case may be, will be moved to the Surprise Welcome Center and a manual drawing session will be carried out instead.

In the first round of the manual drawing session, each participant will manually draw one small character ball from a box based on the pre-determined sequence. This sequence is the same as that for a Surprise Show. Each character ball is associated with a specific prize that is the same as that prepared for a Surprise Show. The specific prize description is posted on the back of a flip board, with the corresponding character showing on the front of that flip board. The prize will be announced on site.

Should there be a second round scheduled for the specific Surprise Show that has been cancelled, all the small character balls picked by the first round participants will be put in the box again, and a Guest Services Manager from the Surprise Squad will manually draw a ball from the box randomly and the character on that ball will represent the winner for the Magical Star of the Day. If there is only one participant for the first round, such participant will automatically be the Magical Star of the Day.

The entire process will be recorded by location CCTV and the Surprise Squad team's body cameras.

4.6 Prize Issuance and Redemption

All participants are required to return to the Surprise Welcome Center located at Tomorrowland after participating in the Surprise Show, in order to complete the prize issuance and/or redemption process.
